

Why Do We Hold the Race?

The great college basketball coach John Wooden once said, "Young people need models, not critics;" and here at Calvary we try to do just that. We make it our goal to see our children and teenagers embrace their true purpose in life as taught through God's Word and embrace their part in God's global mission. Encouraging them in the gospel, and providing positive role models, motivates us to find events they can participate in throughout the year that builds on much of what our leaders pour into them week to week.

Thank you for your help us fulfill this goal!
